01003183 The earthquakes in southern Türkiye on 6 February 2023 and the days that followed killed at least 50,700 people and destroyed more than 313,000 buildings. They left 3.3 million people homeless across 11 provinces with a territory of 110,000 sq km and a population of 15.6 million (including half of the 3.7 million Syrians enjoying temporary protection in the country). The earthquake has brought about a myriad of challenges for entrepreneurs as well. In regions such as Hatay, Kahramanmaraş, Adıyaman, and Malatya, over half of businesses have suffered severe damage, with more than 90% experiencing negative economic impacts. It is estimated that 220,000 businesses are severely damaged and in need of demolition.Entrepreneurship and Mentorship Opportunities for Women’s Economic Resilience aims to establish a vibrant and inclusive environment that supports the advancement of women entrepreneurs, concurrently fostering strong social networks. This overarching objective is motivated by a dedication to breaking down barriers and advocating for gender equality in the entrepreneurial sphere, promoting economic empowerment, and nurturing collaborative relationships among women.The Project focuses on a single primary outcome: The Establishment of the Women's Business Development Centre in Kahramanmaraş.
